CONCERNING MR. McCUTCHEON'S CARTOONS

THOSE who have studied and admired Mr. McCutcheon's cartoons in the daily press doubtless have been favorably impressed by the two eminent characteristics of his intent. First, he cartoons public men without grossly insulting them. Second, he recognizes the very large and important fact that political events do not fill the entire horizon of the American people. It has not been very many years since the newspaper cartoon was a savage caricature of some public man who had been guilty of entertaining tariff opinions that did not agree with the tariff opinions of the man who controlled the newspaper. It was supposed to supplement the efforts of the editorial in which the leaders of the opposition were termed "reptiles."

¶ The first-class, modern newspaper seems to have awakened to the fact that our mundane existence is not entirely wrapped up in politics. Also, that a man may disagree with us and still have some of the attributes of humanity.

¶ In Mr. McCutcheon's cartoons we admire the clever execution, and the gentle humor which diffuses all of his work, but I dare say that more than all we admire him for his considerate treatment of public men and his blessed wisdom in getting away from the hackneyed political subjects and giving us a few pictures of that every-day life which is our real interest.

ENTERTAINING PRINCE HENRY

"LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, I THANK YOU FOR A VERY PLEASANT VISIT"

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT IS RESTING AT OYSTER BAY

First he chops down a few trees.

Then takes a cross-country canter.

And a twenty-minute brisk walk.

After which he gives the children a wheel-barrow ride.

He then rests for a moment

By which time he is ready for breakfast.

OUR PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS SOME OF HIS FRIENDS AT OYSTER BAY

He first entertains an old fellow tennis-player.

And then shows a few fellow rough riders around town.

After which he is visited by some fellow L.L.D.'s.

And then a couple of old hunter friends.

A few fellow politicians then call to discuss the situation.

And finally he has a pleasant chat with some fellow authors and historians.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT VISITS MR. CLEVELAND AT PRINCETON

"Ah! Welcome to Princeton, Mr. Roosevelt."

"Would you like to look at my photograph albums?"

"That one weighed eight pounds, Theodore."

BEAR HUNTING IN MIASMA, MISSISSIPPI

"Now, you jist be patient, Mr. President, and ye 'll soon have a nice mess o' bar."

(Four hours later.) "I wonder where the bears are to-day. This is unbearable."

(Eight hours later.) "Strange there wa'n't none o' them bar around. Reckon you all wa'n't patient enough, Mr. President."

OUR CHICAGO ALDERMEN IN BOSTON

"Ah, gentlemen, you are interested in literature, are you not?"
 "Why, sure."

"How is the literary movement in the West, gentlemen?"
 "Fine. Moving right along in great shape."

"I suppose you enjoy Emerson, gentlemen?"
 "Why, yes, I suppose so. What paper's he on now?"

"And do you not love Holmes, the dear old Autocrat of the Breakfast Table?"
 "You bet! There's nobody like Sherlock for a good, rattling detective story."

"Good-evening, Your Majesty."
"Good-evening, Mr. Morgan."

"You look well in your knickers, Morgan."
"I came on my bike, King Edward."

"Your crown becomes you very much, King."
"I'm afraid it needs pressing, Pierpont."

"Have a fresh cigar, Pierp."
"Thanks, Edward. It looks like a good one."

"Let me reciprocate, Ed. Have a bunch of stocks on me."
"Thanks. Don't care if I do."

MRS. SMILEY W. GREENE, WIFE OF THE POPULAR UNDERTAKER, CELEBRATES THANKSGIVING BY ENTERTAINING THE DANCING CLUB

The Dancing Club met at the home of Mrs. Smiley W. Greene on Thanksgiving evening. A full quota of our fellow townsmen attended and all agreed on parting that a most enjoyable time was had. Mrs. Greene was beautifully gowned in a blue and white creation trimmed with sprays of lunettes. Elegant refreshments were served and the occasion was rendered quite Bohemian in character by the presence of our talented local artist, E. Milton Brown of the Bird Center Tintype Studios. Rev. Waipole and family dropped in for a few moments during the early part of the festivities.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NOTES.

Chris C. Newbower was also among those present at Mrs. Smiley W. Greene's dancing club entertainment. Chris says that he is not much of a shining light in the social whirl.

Miss ——— Barnard, of Xenia, Ohio, who has been visiting the Misses Niebling, has decided to remain here a week longer. Ah, there, R——— y———s.

THE NAVAL MANŒUVRES AT NEWPORT

THE INGLORIOUS FIFTH

JUST BEFORE THANKSGIVING DAY

"HELPING MOTHER"

JUST BEFORE CHRISTMAS

"Ah, I see quite a number of new faces here to-day."

HAVE YOU EVER HAD THIS EXPERIENCE?

MR. MANSHOPPER—"I've discovered the great secret of Christmas present buying. First decide positively what you want to buy, then decide on the price you want to pay, and then go and buy it."

"I think I like that bowl better than the vase or the inkstand."

CHORUS OF ADMIRING FEMININE VOICES—"Oh, isn't that a perfectly lovely pitcher! Oh, isn't it too lovely for anything!"

Mr. Manshopper after having purchased a present for his wife's writing desk.

A PICTORIAL SERMONETTE
THE WOMAN WHO TELLS HER HUSBAND ALL HER PETTY TROUBLES

"I tell you, it's a relief to get home after a long, hard day of work and worry at the office."

"Oh, William, I've had such a dreadful day to-day! First it was one thing, and then another. I just know the grocer over-charged me on that yeast I bought yesterday; and the baby cried nearly an hour this afternoon, and the bread burned, and the dog chewed up one of your slippers, and the roof leaks, and the hall carpet is wearing out."

"And you must punish Willie. I can't do a thing with him any more. He insists on being a pirate when he grows up, and he knows well enough that we want him to be a doctor. And we really must have a new hall carpet, and you must see about the roof, and be sure to see the grocer about the yeast."

"Great Scott! I guess I'll have to go down to the office again to-night."

A PICTORIAL SERMONETTE

"Half-past four—and Johnny not here yet. I wonder what can keep him so long?"

"Supposing he has been skating and has broken through the ice!"

"Or maybe he has been run over by a trolley car!"

"Oh, I know: something dreadful has happened to him. I just know they 'll soon be bringing him home."

But, as usual, there was nothing whatever the matter with Johnny.

A PICTORIAL SERMONETTE

THE MAN WHO HAD NO RIGHT TO TALK

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK — "Why, take a night like this, with the thermometer below zero, the suffering among the poor is simply terrible. Somebody ought to take them coal barons out and string 'em up to the nearest lamp-post."

AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK — "I tell you, gentlemen, it's an infamous outrage. Just think of the suffering among the helpless poor. It makes me mad to think of it. I wish I was President for about fifteen minutes — you'd see some of them villains in the coal trust pay for their confounded heartlessness."

AT TWELVE O'CLOCK — "Well, I've got to be going, for I've got a twelve-mile drive and it's bitter cold to-night. I pity the poor people who have no coal on a night like this."

A PICTORIAL SERMONETTE

ON THE IMAGINATIVE MAN WHO WORKS HIMSELF INTO A PASSION BECAUSE HE THINKS SOME ONE MAY INSULT HIM

"I wonder if he will remember me after all these years. Maybe his prosperity has changed him so that he will pretend to forget the old school-days."

"Well, if he tries the haughty act with me there 'll be trouble. I won't allow any man to insult me. It would be an outrageous way to treat an old friend."

"And I'm too proud to stand for it a minute! I'll mop up the floor with him! I'll show him that I'm as good as he is, even if he is rich. Confound him, I'll leave this beastly hole rather than be humiliated that way!"

As a matter of fact Mr. Scadsworth was delighted to see his old friend.

A PICTORIAL SERMONETTE

ONE OF THE PERILS OF THOSE WHOSE POSITIONS IN SOCIETY ARE NOT SECURE

MR. SNOBBLY (aside)—“Great Scott, there’s that man who spoke to me at the hotel. I wonder how he broke in here. I hope he doesn’t speak to me right here before Mrs. Topnotcher.”

“Oh, Mrs. Topnotcher, what a beautiful tapestry that is over there!”

“And what a lovely chandelier you have.” (Aside.) “I hope that old man has not recognized me.”

As a matter of fact, old Mr. Bullion did n’t know Snobbly was on earth. He merely came over to speak to his old friend, Mrs. Topnotcher, with whom he spent a week at a house-party in Windsor Castle as the guest of King Edward.

MR. LUGUBRIOUS BLUE AND MR. SMILEY GLADD ON THE VENEZUELAN SITUATION

Mr. GLADD—"Well, I see there's another little scrap down in Venezuela."

Mr. BLUE—"Little scrap, nothing. It's the beginning of a terrible war between the United States and Europe."

Mr. GLADD—"Oh, I think they'll adjust the trouble before long."

"Now, you mark my words. Inside of three months we'll have to defend the Monroe Doctrine against England and Germany."

Mr. GLADD—"Oh, dear me, you don't think it's so serious as all that, do you?"

"Listen. I'll tell you just what will happen. England and Germany will fight Venezuela for a week or two, then demand eight hundred million dollars indemnity and refuse to leave till they get it. Uncle Sam'll say, 'clear out,' and then look out for something doing in war circles."

Mr. GLADD—"Oh, I'm sure they'll patch it up all right."

"Just you wait. We'll have a war that will be the most dreadful one that ever happened."

A CARIBBEAN SCHÜTZENFEST

OR, THE SHIP THAT WAS MUCH THE WORSE FOR WAR

"Ach, Himmel, this monotony is deadly. Nichts kommt raus; or, in other words, there's nothing doing in war circles."

"While we're waiting, let's heave a few twelve-pounders over in that Venezuelan fort. Let's wake 'em up a little."

"By the way, gunner, see if you can shoot the mizen-mast off of that male over yonder."

But at that moment the Venezuelans woke up, and the Schützenfest was all over.

SHERLOCK HOLMES ANALYZES A PERFECT STRANGER

SHERLOCK HOLMES—"Ah, a stranger whom I've never seen before."

"How do you do, sir. I observe that you are in the coal trust; also that you have just had a narrow escape; that you have no children; that you were in a great hurry this morning; that you have been writing, and that you shaved with your left hand this morning. Are you going away on the afternoon or the evening train?"

"Why, this is simply marvelous, Mr. Holmes. Everything you've said is true. How in the world did you find out all these things about a man you've never heard of before?"

"By a very simple process of deduction. I can tell by your hands that you are in a trust, and I know it was the coal trust by the hungry way you looked at my purse there on the table, and by the fact that you glanced apprehensively around you as if expecting some one to hit you with a club. I knew that you had just had a narrow escape, by the fact that three bricks grozed you, and the brick dust is still on your coat. You have no children, for if you had you would have some consideration for poor people who have children. I knew that you expected to take a journey, because I understand the grand jury is in session. I also knew that you had shaved with your left hand because your face is cut, and there is ink on your right forefinger, showing that you were writing out on order to whoop the price of coal while shaving with your left. You were in a hurry, because you had time to have only one shoe polished. It's all very simple."

THE SYMPATHETIC COAL DEALER AND THE MAN WHO HAD TO HAVE A TON OF COAL

SYMPATHETIC COAL DEALER — "I'm terrible sorry your family is suffering, but I have n't an ounce of coal that is n't contracted for."

"Oh, it breaks my heart to hear that your children are suffering and if I had any coal to spare I'd let you have it."

"Oh, your sad story overwhelms me with grief and I wish to express my deep sympathy."

"I'll send the coal right down. If you need any more just let me know."

W. L. F. 1904

DOES THE END JUSTIFY THE MEANNESS?

THE COAL OPERATOR — "Honestly, I hate to see all this suffering upon all sides —

"But, Great Scott, just see how much money I'm making! I'll soon have enough to endow a college."

THE COAL INVESTIGATION

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE TO THE COAL CONSPIRATOR — "Now, answer me explicitly. What per cent of hydrogen does the average ton of coal contain?"

"Now, do not attempt to equivocate or evade this important question. If a ton of coal weighs a thousand pounds, how much does a ton of anthracite coal weigh compared to the weight of a ton of bituminous coal?"

"Do you or do you not know whether a ton of anthracite coal dating from the palaeozoic age burns more readily than a ton of bituminous dating from the pre-glacial epoch? This has an important bearing upon our investigation."

The Committee submits its report.
